

Major Medical Associations' Policy Positions on Marijuana

Tentative list of medical associations to study:

- 1. American Medical Association (AMA)
- 2. American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP)
- 3. American College of Physicians (ACP)
- 4. American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP)
- 5. American Psychiatric Association (APA)
- 6. American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM)
- 7. American Academy of Neurology (AAN)
- 8. American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG)
- 9. American Academy of Pain Medicine (AAPM)
- 10. American Heart Association (AHA)
- 11. American Lung Association (ALA)
- 12. American Osteopathic Association (AOA)
- 13. American Public Health Association (APHA)
- 14. American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM)
- 15. American Psychological Association (APA)
- 16. American Nurses Association (ANA)
- 17. National Association for Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC)

Association	Recreational	Medical Marijuana	Decriminalization /	Policy
	Marijuana		expungement	Statement
American	Opposed	Supports more research;	Supports	HERE
Medical		should follow FDA	decriminalization
Association		approval process; does	and expungement of not specify particular	minor offenses conditions
American	Opposed	Supports use for severe	Supports	HERE
Academy of		conditions under strict	decriminalization
Pediatrics		medical supervision;	and expungement, opposes state programs	particularly for
		without FDA regulation	youth
American	No Official	Supports medical use	Supports	HERE
College of	Stance	under physician	decriminalization
Physicians		supervision; FDA approval

		process recommended; no specific conditions listed	and expungement of minor offenses
American Academy of Family Physicians	Opposed	Supports more research; favors FDA approval; no specific conditions listed	Supports decriminalization and treatment instead of incarceration	HERE
American Psychiatric Association	Opposed	Supports more research through FDA process; concerned about mental health risks; no specific conditions listed	Supports decriminalization, particularly for minor offenses	HERE
American Society of Addiction Medicine	Opposed	Supports cautious use with FDA approval; no specific conditions listed	Supports decriminalization and expungement of minor offenses	HERE
American Academy of Neurology	Does not advocate for legalization	Supports reclassification for research purposes; does not advocate for the legalization of marijuana- based products for use in neurologic disorders at this time further research needed for use in neurological disorders; not enough evidence yet	No official stance	HERE
American College of Obstetrician s and Gynecologist s	Opposed during pregnancy and lactation due to risks to fetal development	Opposed during pregnancy and lactation; advises against use for medical purposes due to insufficient safety data	No specific stance on decriminalization or expungement	HERE
American Academy of Pain Medicine	Opposed to recreational use	Supports more research; favors FDA approval; no specific conditions listed	Supports decriminalization and treatment instead of incarceration	HERE
American Heart Association	Opposed due to potential cardiovascul ar risks	Opposed without FDA regulation; concerns about cardiovascular	No specific stance on decriminalization or expungement	HERE

		safety, recommends further research
American Lung Association	Opposed to smoking marijuana due to lung health risks	Opposed to smoking or inhalation of marijuana for medical use; further research needed on other forms of medical marijuana	No specific stance on decriminalization or expungement	HERE
American Osteopathic Association	Opposed to recreational use by physicians, students, and patients due to health risks	Supports use under strict medical supervision; advocates for further research	No stance	HERE
American Public Health Association	Supports regulation of recreational use under a public health framework, including age restrictions and THC limits	Supports access under strict regulation, recommends state- regulated frameworks ; no specific conditions mentioned, encourages research-based decisions	Strongly supports decriminalization and expungement of cannabis-related offenses	HERE
American Academy of Sleep Medicine	Opposed due to potential effects on sleep and overall health	Opposed to use for treating sleep disorders like OSA (Obstructive Sleep Apnea); further research needed	No specific stance on decriminalization or expungement	HERE
American Psychologica l Association	Opposed due to concerns about mental health risks (e.g., psychosis, addiction)	Supports more research; must follow FDA approval process; no specific conditions mentioned	Not addressed in the document	HERE
American Nurses Association	No official stance on recreational use	Supports therapeutic use under medical supervision; advocates for more research;	Not addressed in the document	HERE

		reclassification from Schedule I recommended
National	Opposed to	Supports further research;	Supports	HERE
Association	recreational	should be prescribed	decriminalization
for	use;	under strict medical	and believes it
Alcoholism	concerns	supervision	would reduce the
and Drug	about		burden on the
Abuse	addiction		criminal justice
Counselors	risks		system	